DINNEFORD'S MAGNESIA.

BRAIN WORK is undoubtedly far more exhausting than bodily labour. Great thinkers, and persons burdened with cares, have the most need of those sustaining and restorative agents so mercifully supplied in the vegetable world, which, wisely used, go far to support the powers of nature. Dr. T. LAUDER BRUNTON says in the Contemporary Review:—"The late Lord DERBY, when translating Homer, was accustomed to eat BRANDIED CHERRIES;" and Dr. ALBERT J. BERNAYS says:—"If I come home after any worry I shall never hesitate to set myself right by taking my favorite and perfect remedy, five or six Brandied Cherries. In three or four minutes I find myself wonderfully soothed and quieted, and I have never experienced any ill effects." The essence and virtue of the Morella Cherry in a concentrated form, combined with the finest Cognac, is now to be found in that well-known and delicious Liqueur, "GRANT'S MORELLA CHERRY BRANDY," which, taken alone or with water, produces in a greatly increased degree all those good effects above described. The Liqueur may be procured through any Wine Merchant, at all Bars and Restaurants, and of the Manufacturer, THOMAS GRANT, Distiller, Maidstone.

LIFE AND TIMES OF STEIN ;

OR,

GERMANY AND PRUSSIA IN
THE NAPOLEONIC AGE.

By J. R. SEELEY, M.A.,

Regius Professor of Modern History in the University of Cambridge.

From THE TIMES, December 30, 1878.

"Dr. Busch's volume has made people think and talk even more than usual of Prince Bismarck; and Prof. Seeley's very learned work on Stein will turn attention to an earlier and an almost equally eminent German statesman. It has been the good fortune of Prince Bismarck to help to raise Prussia to a position which she had never before attained, and to complete the work of German unification. The frustrated labours of Stein in the same field were also very great, and well worthy to be taken into account. He was one, perhaps the chief, of the illustrious group of strangers who came to the rescue of Prussia in her darkest hour, about the time of the inglorious Peace of Tilsit, and who laboured to put life and order into her dispirited army, her impoverished finances, and her inefficient Civil Service. Stein strove, too—no man more—for the cause of unification when it seemed almost folly to hope for success. Englishmen will feel very pardonable pride at seeing one of their countrymen undertake to write the history of a period from the investigation of which even laborious Germans are apt to shrink. To thread the tortuous ways of Prussian politics from 1798 to 1813, to master the various blunders and all the cowardly tactics and vacillations of Haugwitz and Lombard, and to scatter the mists of legend which have already gathered round the German war of emancipation, is a hard enough task for a German man of letters, not to speak of an English Professor. No doubt, Dr. Pauli, Professor von Ranke, Dr. Gneist, and many other German scholars write for us the history of our country and institutions, and it is taken for granted that they should be our historical teachers. It is soothing to the national self-respect to find a few Englishmen, such as the late Mr. Lewes and Professor Seeley, doing for German as well as English readers what many German scholars have done for us."

From THE DAILY NEWS, January 11, 1879.

"The scope of this valuable work is better shown by its sub-title than by that which stands at the head of its pages. The personal history of Stein has been chosen as a connecting chain, on which might be conveniently hung a history of the movement in which he was a conspicuous actor. It is the movement itself, the anti-Napoleonic Revolution, the beginnings of the spirit of nationality among the Germans, the incidents of the first impulse which resulted ultimately in the union of the Fatherland under Prussian hegemony, rather than the life of any one individual, that Prof. Seeley has undertaken to describe. . . . Mr. Seeley's work remains a contribution as valuable as it is timely to the understanding of a great historic personage, and of a great and critical historic period."

From THE ATHENÆUM, January 18, 1879.

"In a notice of this kind scant justice can be done to a work like the one before us; no short résumé can give even the most meagre notion of the contents of these volumes, which contain no page that is superfluous, and none that is uninteresting. Every day the interest attaching to the present political condition of Germany increases; every day we see more and more clearly the outlines of the great constitutional struggles, possibly of the revolution that must surely soon come about. To understand the Germany of to-day one must study the Germany of many yesterdays, and now that study has been made easy by this work, to which no one can hesitate to assign a very high place among those recent histories which have aimed at original research."

"The name of Dr. Perowne is a guarantee for good and scholarly work; while his intimate acquaintance with the Biblical scholars of every Church and school of thought will enable him to secure the co-operation of the men best fitted to assist him."—Expositor.

"Although this edition of the Bible is really compiled for the benefit of the young, grown-up people may gain much from its study; we would especially recommend its use to Sunday-school teachers; its unsectarian spirit, too, will recommend it to all classes and denominations."—Cambridge Chronicle.

"With Dr. J. J. S. Perowne for General Editor, and an eminent list of well-known Biblical scholars as contributors, we have the highest guarantee that the work will be completed in a scholarly, useful, and reliable form."—Weekly Review.

"Older folks than the youths who study for the University examinations, even ministers themselves—will be glad to use such helps to the critical study of the Divine Word."—Daily Review (Edinburgh).

"The value of the work as an aid to Biblical study, not merely in schools but among people of all classes who are desirous to have intelligent knowledge of the Scriptures, cannot easily be over-estimated."—Scotsman.

"The series will be valuable to schools; but it will by no means exhaust its usefulness there."—John Bull.

NOW READY.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA. Edited by the Rev. G. F. MACLEAR, D.D. With Two Maps. Cloth, extra fcap 8vo, 2s. 6d.

THE BOOK OF JONAH. By Archdeacon
PEROWNE. With Two Maps. Cloth, 1s. 6d.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING to ST.
MATTHEW. By the Rev. A. CARR, M.A. With Two Maps. Cloth, 2s. 6d.

"The volume before us condenses in the smallest possible space the best results of the best commentators on St. Matthew's Gospel."—English Churchman.

"All matters of editing are faultless."—Nonconformist.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING to ST.
MARK. By the Rev. G. F. MACLEAR, D.D. With Two

"It is a very business-like little book."—Contemporary Review.

"The notes supply the needful facts of criticism without its pedantry, and are redolent of high culture and ability."—Literary Churchman.

"I can very heartily commend it, not only to the senior boys and girls in our High Schools, but also to Sunday-school teachers, who may get from it the very kind of knowledge they often find it hardest to get."—Expositor.

"The notes are clear, full of information—not mere words and wind."—John Bull.

"A mine of information, although contained in a succinct and handy volume."—English Churchman.

THE FIRST EPISTLE to the CO-
RINTHIANS. By the Rev. Prof. LIAS, M.A. With a Plan and Map. Cloth, 2s.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE of ST. JAMES.
By the Rev. E. H. PLUMPTRE, D.D. Cloth, 1s. 6d.

"Prof. Plumptre's notes on 'The Epistle of St. James' are models of terse, exact, and elegant renderings of the original, which is too often obscured in the Authorised Version."—Nonconformist.

"It is, so far as I know, by far the best exposition of the Epistle of St. James in the English language. Not schoolboys or students going in for an examination alone, but ministers and preachers of the Word, may get more real help from it than from the most costly and elaborate commentaries."—Expositor.

"Enriched with a useful introduction, in which the authorship of the Epistle and the time when written are discussed with the fulness which we had a right to expect from Dr. Plumptre."—John Bull.
